Ride METRO to the International Quilt Festival 2026

METRO offers Local Bus, METRORail, Park & Ride Bus, on-demand Community Connector services throughout the Houston Region. Local services cost just $1.25, while Park & Ride Bus fares vary by zone and range from $2.00 to $4.50 each way.

Whether traveling to the International Quilt Festival or exploring the Houston region, attendees can rely on METRO's network of transit services to get where they need to go.

How to Ride

Riding METRO is simple!

1. Plan your trip using the RideMETRO app
2. Pay your fare upon boarding
3. Ride with confidence to your destination

Ways to Pay & Board

Credit or Debit

Mobile Wallet

3-hour Pass or Day Pass
Purchased at a Ticket Vending Machine (TVM)

Virtual Card on the RideMETRO app

RideMETRO Fare Card

Cash
Exact Change on Bus & METRORail TVM only

Enjoy free 3-hour transfers when you tap or scan the same payment method. Not available with cash.

Riders must INSERT/TAP/SCAN their fare payment method before every trip or transfer.

Note: Each rider must tap or pay with their own method. METRORail riders can purchase multiple individual tickets from a Ticket Vending Machine (TVM) located on METRORail stations.

RideMETRO.org • 713-635-4000 (Call or Text)